

I live and travel on the remote areas of the Navajo Reservation, and I support XM keeping its broadcast of Traffic and Weather, because its helpful to know what the weather is going to look like today, or the rest of the week. It helps plan my trip, and keeps my head up on road conditions even while I'm on road when I don't have access to a TV.